WASHINGTON, April 17.—The Senate refused to strike out of the Army appropriations bill the provision which would prohibit the Secretary of War from authorizing military examinations prior to enlisting recruits. The action of Senator McKinley, Democrat, from Ohio, to strike out was defeated 36 to 3.

The action of the Senate was expected to result in carrying the resolution limiting physical tests for recruits for educational, military, health, between 16 and 21 years of age, for voluntary training centers or enforcement centers to Chairman Wadsworth and twelve others. Previous vote: three were 36 to 3.

NEW ENGLAND'S M. E. CHURCH BAN IS OFF DANCING, GARDEN

BOSTON, April 17.—The New England conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has voted to lift the ban on dancing, card playing and billiards. The following words will be dropped from the book of discipline. In their place will be substituted practices that equal in the loss of moral and spiritual character.

Stolen Denver Girl Is Found.
DENVER, Colo., April 14.—Savoye George, a 14-year-old girl, whom her parents claim was stolen by underworld kidnappers last Wednesday, was found by city police in a house on South Larimer street. She told the police she had been sold, pressed and cruelly treated. Two men, who gave their names as Bernards, Terry and Dimitro Rodriguez, are alleged by the police to have confessed to holding the girl against her will.

Johnson Offers Bonus Bill.
WASHINGTON, April 14.—A bill to exempt the law imposing a tax of 4% per cent on excess war profits was introduced by Representative Johnson, Republican, of South Dakota, as a means of raising revenue for a soldier bonus. There also would be a levy on the privilege of issuing stock dividends. The bill will be made applicable to profits of 1919, 1920 and 1921, and Representative Johnson figured it would raise $1,000,000.

States with Most Women Voters.
When the suffrage amendment is ratified, 26,000,000 new voters will join the ranks, according to estimates based on the 1910 census, making no allowance for aliens. New York state leads the country in its number of women 21 years of age and over, with a figure of 3,000,272. Next is Pennsylvania, with 2,222,409 women. Following in order are Illinois, with 1,751,236; Ohio, with 1,528,173; and Massachusetts, with 1,481,623.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 13.—The Democratic state central committee at its session here yesterday fixed June 3 as the date for holding a state convention to select six delegates to the Democratic national convention. The convention will be held in Roswell. Women are to be admitted to vote in all the primaries for the selection of county delegates to the convention. The meeting closed with a banquet of 100 plates.

Professor Dies in Death.
BOULDER, Colo., April 13.—Dr. C. A. Bandish, a professor of the University of Colorado, was found frozen to death in a trap's cabin three miles west of Eldora in the Arapaho Peak region. He and another professor, Alexander Elliott, on a photographic expedition, were caught in the storm Elliott is dying.
